

Dr. Piero Gattoni
Via Massari 11
46100 – Mantova
presidenza@consorziobiogas.it

Education and work experience:

Degree in Economics at the Catholic University of Milan in 1997; farmer with his father Carlo, which leads the family farm specializing in the breeding of dairy cows and the production of energy from biogas; President of the Cooperative Caramasche Pegognaga for the production and maturation of Parmigiano Reggiano in Mantua.

President of Italian Biogas Consortium and Vice President of Parmigiano Reggiano Consortium.

Experiences and main positions held in the industry:

- Founding member and President of the CIB - Italian Biogas Consortium
- Founding member of European Biogas Association
- Member of chain Agro-Energetic of the Ministry of Agriculture
- Member of the Scientific Committee of Ecomondo
- Member of the Executive Board of Confcooperative Mantova and National Fedagri
- Member of the Board Director of Confagricoltura.
- Member of the Board of the National Coordination Free.