ECOMONDO 2018 – SCHOOL GROUPS ADMISSION REGULATIONS

INTRODUCTION

Ecomondo is an international venue for high-ranking companies and is open to professional operators only. In view of the numerous complaints about school groups from exhibitors in past shows, Italian Exhibition Group SpA has drawn up a set of simple but stringent regulations to be followed by school groups. The number of students allowed to visit the show is restricted.

ARTICLES

1. Students of professional institutes are only allowed to visit the show if the latter are accredited. Only students attending the last and next-to-the-last year of the study cycle may visit the show, only on 6 november and 9 november 2018.
2. To acquire accreditation, please write to annamaria.bonfe@iegexpo.it by 20 October 2018 at the latest.
3. Consider yourself officially invited only after receiving a written reply accepting visitor candidacy.
4. Once the maximum limit of pre-accredited school groups has been reached (according to the number of students) visit applications will be rejected.
5. SCHOOL GROUPS WITHOUT ACCREDITATION WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO ENTER THE SHOW.
6. The admission cost for each pupil is € 5, if pre-accreditation is made by 20 October 2018. In case of pre-accreditation after such date, the admission cost for each pupil is € 10.
7. Inside the show, the following are strictly forbidden:
 - 7.1. sitting down and lying on the floor;
 - 7.2. discarding refuse of any kind;
 - 7.3. creating disorder or confusion in the halls;
 - 7.4. causing any type of disturbance to exhibitors or visitors;
8. Anyone who fails to comply with one or more of the above rules may be turned out of the show, together with the school group to which he/she belongs. Furthermore, the school to which the offending student belongs will be forbidden from entering the show for 3 subsequent years.
